

Note : Answer 6 only .

Q 1// define:- (10 degree)

- 1- Intussusception
- 2- Meckel's Diverticulum
- 3- Apposition technique
- 4- Ranula
- 5- Intestinal neoplasms

Q 2 // Small lamb (1day old)with tenesmus and no milking have bulging of the perineum (give your suggest and treatment surgically). (10 degree)

Q 3 // Horses with clinical signs: dysphagia, regurgitation of food, water and saliva from the mouth and nostrils, extension of head and neck and coughing (give your suggest and treatment surgically). (10 degree)

Q 4 // A // Indication of rumenotomy in cow . (5 degree)

B// Enumerate the Indications for enterectomy (5 degree)

Q 5 // What is your suggest of the Clinical Sings of dog (Within 3 hours after a meal, there is abdominal distension. Excessive salivation. As the degree of abdominal distention increases, dyspnea becomes worse due to pressure on the diaphragm.) (10 degree)

Q 6 // Enumerate the Indications for enterectomy. (10 degree)

Q 7 // predisposing factors make the horses more susceptible to intestinal disorders than cattle ? (10 degree)

Good Luck

Exminer \ Montaser M Helal

Head of the Dep \Bashar S Nome